

1           THE COURT: All right. Mr. Kris St. Onge, in
2       consideration of the offenses of which you stand convicted,
3       the information, the factors under the statute, Section
4       3553, the information from the United States Attorney, your
5       attorney, and the probation officer, this Court sentences
6       you on each of the counts of conviction to two and-a-half
7       years in the custody of the United States Attorney General,
8       30 months in custody, the sentence on each count to run
9       concurrent one with the other.

10           The Court imposes on you thereafter three years of 11       supervised release. The Court imposes upon you no fine due
12       to your inability to pay a fine. The Court imposes upon you
13       a $900 special assessment as is required by the law.

14           I recommend, I recommend that you participate in 15       the 500-hour comprehensive drug treatment program while in 16       custody.

17           In addition to the general conditions of probation,
18       you are to supply a DNA sample as directed by the probation
19       officer. You're prohibited from possessing a firearm or 20       other dangerous weapon. You're to participate in a mental 21       health treatment program as directed by the United States
22       Probation Office. You're required to pay what you can 23       towards that program.

24           I take it you have no objection to self-reporting,
25       Mr. Berman?

1                   MR. BERMAN: That is correct, your Honor. I have 2 no objection.

3                   THE COURT: Do you have any recommendation as to 4 the place of confinement, Mr. Muse?

5                   MR. MUSE: As close to home as possible, your 6 Honor.

7                   THE COURT: Well, as close to home as possible is 8 Devens. But Devens is a special -- there may be bed
9 problems in Devens.

10                  MR. MUSE: I understand that's changed.

11                  THE COURT: But I'll make that recommendation and 12 I'll revise it if that would be better.

13                  I do recommend that the sentence be served at the 14 facility at Devens.

15                  Mr. St. Onge is directed to report to the place of 16 incarceration six weeks from today, Thursday, the 31st of 17 March.

18                  Mr. St. Onge, you are informed you have the right
19 to appeal from any findings or rulings this Court has made
20 against you. Should you appeal and if your appeal is 21 successful in whole or in part you will be resentenced by 22 another judge.

23                  That's the sentence of the Court. We'll recess.

24                  THE CLERK: All rise. Court is in recess.

25                  (Whereupon the matter concluded.)
